George Gund III

Co-Chairman of the Board

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to the rule.

The North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund, 52, is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating Inc., which sponsors a hockey program for kids and adults of all ages. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Case Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco.

Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was June of 1978 when he helped put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 percent control of the North Stars.

He has served as director of Ameri-Trust Corporation for 18 years and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he owns a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. He was a founding shareholder and past Chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper restaurant chain.

In addition, he is an involved in a wide variety of film related activities. He is active with the San Francisco International Film Festival and has been Chairman of the Board since 1974. He supports many film organizations including the Pacific Film Archive at the University of California at Berkeley, the Telluride and Cleveland International Film Festivals, the Independent Feature Project, and the American independent film sidebars at the Berlin and Munich International Film Festivals. He is a member of the board of the Sundance Institute in Utah and this year he served as a member of the jury of the Moscow International Film Festivial.

Gund is a trustee of the George Gund Foundation, the San Francisco Art Institute, a member of the International Counsel of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States, the University Art Museum in Berkley, California and the University of Nevada Foundation in Reno. He is Chairman of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and served as a member of the U.S.A. Olympic Hockey Committee for the 1988 Olympic Games. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in San Francisco and are the parents of two boys.

Gordon Gund

Co-Chairman of the Board

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Groton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson, and continues today at the National Hockey League level. Gund, 49, joined his brother George in 1977 in ownership of the former Cleveland Barons. He played a key role in the summer of 1978, when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars and Met Center.

The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service. Gund's involvement in the business of sports and entertainment expanded in 1981, when he and his brother acquired complete ownership of the CAVS/ Coliseum Management Company and then again in 1983 when they acquired control of the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers. Gund is co-owner of the CAVS/ Coliseum Management Company. Also in 1983, again with his brother, George, Gund acquired the ownership of Nationwide Advertising Service, Inc., a major recruitment advertising agency. Gund is co-chairman of NAS, which has 36 offices throughout the United States and Canada.

Gund also is president and chief executive officer of Gund Investment Corp., of Princeton, N.J., which manages diversified investments. He is a general partner of GUS Enterprises, San Francisco, a firm formed in 1969, which is involved in real estate development, principally on the West Coast. Gund is a director of Kellogg Company of Battle Creek, Mich..

Gund has also taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. In 1971, he was a co-founder of the now-international RP Foundation Fighting Blindness, headquartered in Baltimore, of which he is now chairman. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment and/or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many hundreds of thousands of children and adults, often leading to total blindness. This foundation now has 29 chapters and 27 resource centers in 38 states, and 19 international affiliates.

Lou Nanne

President

Lou Nanne's professional hockey career with the North Stars spans 22 years. He spent 11 years as a player, 10 as general manager and is entering his second year as president of the Met Center/North Stars.

He took over the North Stars as general manager in 1978 when the team was in last place. Three years later in 1981, he brought the team to the Stanley Cup Finals against the New York Islanders.

During his term as General Manager, Nanne served as Vice President and one of Minnesota's alternate members of the NHL Board of Governors. He served one term as chairman of the General Managers Committee of the NHL.

Nanne has been a North Star since signing as a free agent in March of 1968. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played minor hockey, and then chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. Since 1964 he has served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament.

Nanne, 48, and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a daughter, twin sons, and a third son and grandparents of three children.

Jack Ferreira

General Manager

For the Minnesota North Stars, 1988-89 was a season of change, as the club was the second most improved team in the NHL, qualifying for the playoffs for the first time since 1986. While the North Stars made great strides on the ice, much of the credit can be attributed to a restructured front office, and mainly, first-year general manager, Jack Ferreira.

Ferreira, who was named the team's fourth general manager on June 14, 1988, rebuilt the entire North Stars management team in his inaugural season. Within a course of two months, Ferreira named Pierre Page as head coach, Dean Lombardi as assistant general manager, filled scouting positions and began to work on building a successful team.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island, Ferreira attended Boston University where he was named an All-American goaltender and earned a Bachelor of Science in History. He went on to work as assistant coach at West Point before entering his career in professional hockey management.

Prior to coming to Minnesota, Ferreira, 45, was most recently the director of player development for the New York Rangers. Before his two-year stint with the Rangers, he worked six years as a scout for the Calgary Flames. Ferreira worked three years with the National Hockey League's Central Scouting Bureau and five years as assistant general manger of the New England Whalers of the World Hockey Association.

The reputation Ferreira has built is based on his knowledge of hockey skill and his ability to judge that skill in players.

Ferreira makes his home in Edina. He has a daughter, Julie (16), and son, Kent (13).

Dean Lombardi

Assistant General Manager

When Dean Lombardi was hired as North Stars Assistant General Manager, he jumped from one side of the fence to another.

Following a three-year career as a player representative, Lombardi joined the North Stars management staff on August 20, 1989. Lombardi's skills in contract negotiations and knowledge of the National Hockey League's legal system attracted North Star General Manager Jack Ferreira. Lombardi, who said he missed the team spirit involved with a professional sports franchise, joins Brian Burke, of the Vancouver Canucks, as the only other former player agent now employed in an NHL front office.

Lombardi sports an impressive resume along with an intense work ethic that has brought him succcess at all levels.

Lombardi, 30, was born in Holyoke, Massachusetts. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of New Haven in Connecticut. In 1985 he earned his Law Degree from Tulane Law School, specializing in Labor Law.

Lombardi spent time utilizing his labor law specialization before he began working with player agent Art Kaminski. After a year with Kaminski, Lombardi went on his own as a player representative. During his two-year solo career Lombardi represented an impressive list of clients, including five members of the 1988 United States Olympic squad.

Lombardi is single.

Pierre Page

Head Coach

Pierre Page begins his second full season as head coach for the North Stars. After joining Minnesota from the Calgary Flames on July 6, 1988, he led the team to a 19-point improvement, second best in the NHL last season.

Prior to joining the North Stars Page, 40, spent eight years in the Calgary Flames organization. He spent two seasons as an assistant coach to Al MacNeil (1980-82) before spending three seasons (1982-85) as general manager/coach of the Flames' top farm clubs in Colorado and Moncton, New Brunswick. More recently, Page had been a Flames' assistant coach under Bob Johnson and Terry Crisp.

He is credited with doing much of the technical coaching that led Calgary to the best regular season record in the National Hockey League during the 1987-88 season. He was responsible for developing the Flames' power play, which was rated first in the league two years ago. Page also is regarded as an innovator in the use of fitness programs and video to develop specific hockey skills.

Before joining the Flames, Page was the head coach at Dalhousie University in Halifax in the late 70's. He led the university team to the number two spot in Canadian college hockey in 1978-79, capturing the Maritime title for the first time in 60 years. While in Halifax, he also assisted with the American Hockey League team in the city. Page worked with the Canadian Olympic Team in 1980 and with Team Canada in 1981.

Page's association with North Star General Manager Jack Ferreira began in 1980 when Page was hired as assistant coach and Ferreira as a scout in Calgary's inaugural season.

Page, who is fluent in French and English, donates much of his time to Community Affairs. He and his wife Donna make their home in Bloomington. They are the parents of a four-year old daughter, Lauren.

NORTH STARS COACHES

Dave Chambers
Assistant Coach

Dave Chambers joins the North Stars coaching staff after a coaching career that spans 20 seasons and three countries, and has produced a .730 winning percentage.

Chambers coached and taught at York University in Toronto last season where he spent a total of eight seasons throughout his career. In addition to his coaching experience, Chambers has a Ph.D from Ohio State University in Physical Education and is the author of many technical manuals and the developer of intructional films.

Beginning his collegiate coaching career in 1967, he spent his first two seasons at the University of Saskatchewan and took second place both years. Chambers coached three more seasons, at the University of Geulph and Ohio State University, before landing at York. He stayed at York for five seasons and earned three division titles and Coach of the Year honors in 1975 and 1977.

Chambers began his association with the Italian National Team the following season (1977-78) when he coached the team to a 29-11-3 record. He returned to the National Team in 1980-81 and coached the Italians to a 20-2-1 record and a gold medal in the Group B championship. The following two seasons he spent with the Italian team, coaching it in two World Championships and earning a victory over the U.S. team. Between 1978 and 1980, Chambers coached the Toronto Marlboros of the Ontario Junior Hockey League and earned the Emms Division Coach of the Year honors.

In 1983-84 Chambers was a coaching consultant with the Oshawa Generals of the Canadian Junior Hockey League. The following season he returned to York University for what would be a three-year stay. He coached York to the OUAA and the CIAU Championship in 1984-85 and the Regional Championship the following season.

For the past five years Chambers has been involved with Team Canada and Canada's National Junior Team. In 1987-88, his Canadian National Junior Team won the World Junior Championship in Moscow.

Chambers and his wife, Irene, have two daughters, Lori (20) and Linda (14).

Craig Hartsburg
Assistant Coach

Craig Hartsburg became assistant coach last season when he retired on Jan. 13, 1988 after a 9½ year playing career with the North Stars, and seven of those years as captain.

Since being chosen first (sixth overall) by Minnesota in 1979, Hartsburg has been a vital part of the North Stars. He led the North Stars' defensemen in scoring his first four seasons on the squad, until 1983-84 when injuries kept him from playing more than 26 games. He played on All-Star teams three of those four years. The season Hartsburg wasn't chosen (1981) he set a North Stars' record for defensemen by collecting 12 assists and 15 points in the playoffs and took the North Stars to the Stanley Cup Finals against the New York Islanders.

Hartsburg is a three-time winner of the North Stars' Tom Dill Memorial Cup, presented to the most proficient defenseman. He holds or shares seven team records, including most assists (60) and most points (77) by a defenseman, and became the only North Star defensemen ever to record a hat trick on Nov. 1, 1986 against Chicago.

He captained his junior team for two years and competed in two World Junior Championships. Hartsburg also competed in three World Championships with Team Canada. After the 1987 World Championship he was chosen as the tournament's best defenseman.

Hartsburg and his wife, Peggy, have two children, Christopher (8) and Katie (7).

Doug Jarvis
Assistant Coach

Doug Jarvis, a 13-year veteran of the National Hockey League, begins his second season coaching with the North Stars. He made the transition from NHL player to NHL assistant coach last season when he joined the North Stars on Aug 2, 1988. Jarvis came to the North Stars after serving as a player/assistant coach and head coach for the Hartford Whaler's Binghamton farm team during the 1987-88 season.

Jarvis was drafted 24th overall by Toronto and later traded to Montreal where he was a four-time member of the Stanley Cup Champion Montreal Canadiens (1976-79). After seven seasons with Montreal, he was traded to Washington in 1982 and helped the Caps make the playoffs for the first time in the history of the franchise. He played his final season-and-a-half with Hartford after being traded in December 1985. The Whalers finished first in their division and earned 93 points, still a club high, in the full season that Jarvis spent with them.

In 1984, Jarvis received the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the NHL'S best defensive forward and in 1987 he was the recipient of the NHL Bill Masterton Trophy for his perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey. That season, he played in his 915th consecutive regular season game, breaking the NHL iron-man record for consecutive games played. He still holds the record at 962 games. Jarvis did not miss a game in his career and actually played 82 games during 1985-86, when he played 25 games with Washington and 57 with Hartford.

Jarvis' strength lies in his knowledge of the team chemistry needed to produce a winning season. His talents are utilized in developing the special teams and the defensive aspect of the players' games. Last season, the North Stars had the sixth best goals-against average in the league and Jarvis can take much of the credit for that.

Jarvis and his wife, Linda, have two children, Laura (5) and Landry (2).

NORTH STARS TRAINERS

Four veterans return to form the 1989-90 North Stars' training staff. The well-traveled foursome includes Head Athletic Trainer Dave Surprenant, Doc (Dick) Rose, Assistant Trainer Dave Smith and Equipment Manager Mark Baribeau.

Surprenant, 31, joined the North Stars in 1987-88 as interim trainer when Dick Rose took a medical leave of absence. Prior to his employment with the North Stars, Surprenant spent four years working for Coplin's Physical Therapy, a company the North Stars have been affiliated with for a number of years. Surprenant also has headed the Normandale Community College training staff and worked as a summer assistant athletic trainer for the New Orleans Saints. Surprenant received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Mankato State University in 1983. He is a native Minnesotan and resides in Richfield. He is single.

Due to medical reasons, Doc Rose begins his second season in an advisory role as Athletic Training Consultant. Rose, 51, joined the North Stars in 1969 after gaining experience with the United States Hockey League. The St. Paul native was head trainer of the North Stars for 18 seasons. A bachelor, Rose spends much of the off-season on the North Shore of Lake Superior near Lutsen, Minn. He is an ardent and expert fisherman.

Smith, 46, begins his fifth year with Minnesota after eight seasons with the St. Louis Blues. He worked with the World Hockey Association team in Cleveland for four seasons and in the International and Ontario Leagues. Smith, a native of Toronto, was head trainer for the 1987 United States Canada Cup team. He and his wife Maxine and their son, Kevin (14), make their home in Eagan.

The 26-year-old Baribeau starts his fifth full-time season as equipment manager, and his ninth season with the North Stars' organization. He had been Rose's part-time assistant four years before gaining full-time employment. Baribeau resides in Richfield and is single.

Shawn Chambers
26 DEFENSE

HEIGHT: 6'2"; WEIGHT: 200 lbs.; AGE: 23 (Oct. 11, 1966)

BORN: Royal Oaks, MI

SHOOTS: Left

OBTAINED: Minnesota's first choice (fourth overall) in the 1987 Supplemental Draft.

BIOGRAPHY

Chambers spent a year and a half playing college hockey with the University of Alaska-Fairbanks . . . In 1986, he left Fairbanks and played 28 games with Seattle of the Western Hockey League, then finished the final 12 games of the season for Fort Wayne of the International Hockey League . . . He collected one goal and five assists in 10 games with Fort Wayne during the playoffs . . . Under the new Supplemental Draft rules in 1987, Chambers became eligible and was the North Stars' No. 1 choice . . . He began the season with Kalamazoo but was recalled on Jan. 10 . . . A shoulder injury on Feb. 24 vs. Toronto required reconstructive surgery which forced him to miss the final 18 games of 1987-88 . . . Chambers is single.

1988-89

After spending the off-season recovering from shoulder surgery, Chambers suffered a shoulder separation during a preseason game on Sept. 24 vs. Edmonton . . . He missed the first four games of the regular season, but returned on Oct. 15 against Boston and collected an assist . . . Through the first 43 North Star games, he played 37, scored two goals and five assists and was a plus-one. Between Minnesota's 44th game and its 78th game, he did not miss a game and recorded 17 points (3-14), including a career-high and team-high five-game scoring streak (0-6-6) March 7-16...On March 29 at Toronto, Chambers suffered an ankle injury and missed the final two games of the regular season . . . He returned for the first three games of the playoffs and collected two assists before an injury kept him out of the final two games . . . He was chosen by teammates as the winner of the KARE-TV Award for North Star Rookie of the Year.

15 CENTER

HEIGHT: 5'10"; WEIGHT: 180 lbs.; AGE: 24 (Dec. 11, 1964)

BORN: Chatham, Ontario

SHOOTS: Left

OBTAINED: From the New York Rangers with Jay Caufield in exchange for Paul Boutilier and Jari Gronstrand on Oct. 5, 1987.

BIOGRAPHY

He played his junior hockey for Brantford of the Ontario Hockey League and was named to the OHL Second All-Star Team in his final season . . . That season Gagner was drafted in the first round (12th overall) by the New York Rangers . . . He left the Rangers' training camp to join the Canadian Olympic Team where he was the team's third-leading scorer . . . The following season, 1984-85, Gagner turned pro and the next three seasons were split between the Rangers and their farm team in New Haven (AHL) . . . In October of 1987, he was traded to Minnesota and set career highs for games, goals, assists, points and penalty minutes . . . Last season he more than tripled the career highs he set two years ago . . . Dave and his wife, Jo-Anne, have an infant son, Sam.

1988-89

Gagner began the season with Minnesota's affiliate in Kalamazoo . . . His stay with the Wings lasted only one IHL game . . . On Nov. 14 at Toronto, Gagner recorded his first career hat trick and surpassed his career-high goal total of eight set in 1987-88 . . . On Nov. 17 vs. the Canucks, Gagner collected his third four-point game of the season and surpassed his career-high point total of 19 set two years ago with the New York Rangers . . . Since Nov. 23, Gagner led all North Star scorers . . . His plus-minus ranking remained consistent throughout the season, never falling below plus-10...On March 31 at Detroit, Gagner was hit by a puck while blocking a shot and fractured his knee forcing him to miss the final regular season game and the playoffs.

NHL INFORMATION

ENTRY DRAFT

The 1990 Entry Draft will be held on Saturday, June 16 in Vancouver.

To be eligible for the Entry Draft, a player must be at least 18 years old by September 15th of that draft year, and not older than 20 by September 15th of that draft year.

The order of selection by teams is based on points earned in the preceding regular season as follows: picks 1-5 are the five teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs with the team having the fewest points selecting first, second fewest selecting second, etc. Picks 6-21 are made by the teams that qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in order of fewest points to most.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS

To be considered a rookie, a player must not have played in 25 or more NHL games in any preceding seasons, nor in six or more NHL games in each of any two preceding seasons.

SUPPLEMENTAL DRAFT

To be eligible for Supplemental Draft, a player must be 21 or older; never have been claimed in an Entry Draft; never have played professionally; and must have played at least one season of college hockey in North America when he was age 18, 19 or 20.

Free agents eligible for the Supplemental Draft shall be ineligible to play in the NHL unless they were claimed in the Supplemental Draft and signed to an NHL contract prior to the start of the next NHL regular season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE

When a tie in points occurs in the regular season standings, the following steps determine the higher position:

(1) Most wins.
(2) Most points earned in games between the two tied clubs. In the case of ties between Patrick Division clubs, the extra home game is not counted.
(3) Best difference in goals for and goals against over the 80-game season.

TRADING DEADLINE

The 26th day preceding the final day of the NHL regular season is the deadline for trades, as well as loans to and recalls from affiliate clubs.

WAIVER DRAFT

The Waiver Draft will be held on Oct. 2, 1989 at 3 p.m. Eastern Time.

NHL clubs are allowed to protect 18 players and two goaltenders from this draft.

Players on that team's reserve list who have completed at least two years of professional play, must be protected or are eligible to be drafted. Goalies on the club's reserve list and under contract, who have completed three pro seasons, must be protected or they can be drafted.

Teams cannot select an unprotected player from another team in their own division.

When one team selects a player from another team, the selecting team must then expose a player they had previously been protected. The team that lost the player has the choice of claiming either the newly-exposed player (whom they must place on their protected list or he can be claimed again) or the selected players waiver price.

If the team that lost a player chooses to accept the waiver price, the team can then protect another player. A team can not lose more than three players or one goaltender.

1989 ALL-STAR GAME

The 41st NHL All-Star Game will be played Sunday, Jan. 21, 1990, the Civic Arena in Pittsburgh, with a team of Campbell Conference All-Stars facing a team of Wales Conference All-Stars.

The starting lineup for each team will be determined by NHL fans for the fourth consecutive year. A total of 96 players — 48 from each conference — will appear on the official ballot which will be available in all NHL arenas and other selected locations. Each NHL team will have at least three players named on the ballot, selected by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association. Write-in votes will also be accepted. The balloting period will be from Oct. 15-January 1, 1990.

The coach for each team is the coach of the previous year's Stanley Cup Finalists. Once the starting lineup's have been named, each coach will choose the remainder of the squads. Each NHL team must be represented by at least one player.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS

At the conclusion of the regular season, the top four finishers in each Division will qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Each round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs will be a best-of-seven seies (2-2-1-1-1 format). In each series throughout the playoffs, the team with the most points during the regular season holds home-ice advantage.

The Division Semi-Finals matches the first-place team in each Division against the fourth-place team in each division. The second-place team plays third-place.

The Division Finals matches the two remaining teams in each Division.

The Conference Finals sends the winner of the Smythe Division against the Norris Division. The winner of the Patrick Division plays the Adams Division Winner.

The Stanley Cup Finals match the winner of Campbell Conference against the winner of the Wales Conference
